

Manly Christian Brothers - Coaching Agreement

Manly Christian Brothers Junior Rugby League Football Club and its executive have an expectation that players, coaches & managers representing the club act & present themselves in a sportsmanlike manner at all times.

Accordingly this club expects it's coaches & their staff be held to a higher level of conduct. The Manly Christian Brothers Junior Rugby League Football Club expects that all coaches and associated staff act and present themselves in the following manner.

Coaches and their associated staff will:

- Wear Club Polo shirt / jumper to all games (when representing this club)
- All coaches and their staff support the players in good sportsmanship regardless of the outcome of the game
- All coaches and their staff will act in good sportsmanship during the entirety of the game and post the game regardless of the outcome
- Ensure their players act in a respectful manner towards all officiating staff regardless of the result of the game.
- Respect the referee's decision; do not engage in disrespectful conduct of any sort that is demeaning to other players, officials or supporters.
- Seek to maximise the participation & enjoyment for all players regardless of ability; avoid the tendency to over-use a talented player, treat all players as equals, regardless of their talent.
- Always consider the health, safety and welfare of the players.
- Ensure that your coaching reflects the level of the competition being played; do not be a "winner-at-all-costs" coach.
- Conduct yourself in a manner at all times that shows professionalism, leadership & respect for all players, officials, spectators, parents & family and match officials.
- All coaches will be accredited by the NSWRL and / or ARL and undertake appropriate courses to obtain and & maintain accreditation
- Abide with the Constitution of the Manly Christian Brother Rugby League Club, and all reasonable decisions made by the executive of same club.
- Will have a current Working with Children Check.

If any coach or his staff fail to comply with the above or if any complaint/s are received about any breaches (perceived or otherwise) the offending party will be called to address the Manly Christian Brothers JRL executive.
